"A most encouraging feature of the recent elections," says the Textile Manufacturers' Journal, "was the advent of an increased number of business men as candidates for Congressional honors. Because of their intimate knowledge of conditions, they were able to controvert in a convincing manner the fallacious attacks upon business and industry by their political opponents. Business men throughout the country are alive as never before to the necessity of taking an active part in politics, not necessarily, however, to the extent of seeking political preferment themselves. The adverse effect of the present tariff upon domestic textile industry has been so serious as to render it necessary for textile manufacturers more generally to take similar action."

Vice President Marshall's remark that the schools of today have too much science and too little of God Almighty has attracted a good deal of attention, and should attract a great deal more. It is not sure that the schools teach too much science, but it is very sure that they have entirely too little religion in them. It is religion that makes character, and it is for the making of character that the schools exist. If they do not go to making children into good and reliable citizens they are inadequate.—Exchange.

The financial article in a recent issue of the New York Journal of Commerce has this significant paragraph: "In the dry goods markets where the policy of high protection has been long regarded as a necessity, it was to be expected that the election news would be discussed very earnestly. This expectation was realized in nearly every house where merchandise is handled. That confidence is greater among selling agents, and is a reflection of larger confidence among manufacturers, was a fact generally conceded and frequently commented on among traders."

The Eastman Kodak Company is completing a million dollar plant in Canada, and explains why they should go across the border and spend so much money within 80 miles of the home of the Kodak. The explanation is found in the tariff. The company finds the raw materials cheaper in Canada, and the finished product is, therefore, furnished to the Canadian trade through the factory on the Canadian side, as the Canadian tariff protects the manufactured product and ours does not.

The Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia, which employed 19,000 men under a protective tariff, now have work for less than 4,000.

Failures of commercial houses for ten months this year were much greater in number, and more than double in the aggregate liabilities than was the case for the corresponding time last year. That was one of the effects of the new Democratic tariff law, which it was promised would make the nation "bloom with prosperity." Instead, adversity has prevailed with millions of persons seeking work and bread, and a vast army of those idle workmen are still suffering.

The Democrats must depend for a majority upon the twenty Tammany members. It is fitting that Tammany should give the Democrats a majority in the House. See how quickly President Wilson will wheel about, as he did towards "Boss" Sullivan in Illinois and others. Tammany will now get her share of patronage and the Wigwam will be in closer touch with the White House.

"Every leading newspaper in the south is vigorously defending the right of the cotton growers to fix not less than 10 cents a pound as a fair price for cotton," says Leslie's Weekly, "yet most of these newspapers have been objecting to the fixing of prices on a fair living basis by the manufacturers of industrial products." Makes a great difference whose ox is gored.

The Young Men's Christian Association in England, soon after the outbreak of the war, sent out an appeal for money and men. In response to this appeal, according to a report now several weeks old, $125,000 was received and 1,000 men volunteered their services free. The Y. M. C. A. now has with the army the soldiers in over 400 centers.

As an example of the unintelligence of the average voter on the subject of constitutional amendments, there is cited the fact that 5,000 voters in Hennepin county, Minnesota, voted to partially disfranchise themselves so far as full representation in the State Senate is concerned. It is inconceivable that they did so intentionally.

Vice President Marshall has circulated a printed letter giving lecture rates. The charge is $300 a lecture, with a reception for himself and wife, a banquet, etc., though all except the $300 may be omitted. Mr. Marshall holds a higher office than Secretary Bryan, and is less excusable for indulging in such a money making scheme.

Where He Was Welcome.

Picking himself up after a rapid flight down the stairs the young man broke forth:

"Of course, it is your privilege to throw me out of the house, Mr. Roughman," he said, "but there is no need of adding insult to injury by having me land on a mat which has the word 'Welcome' woven in it."

"There is nothing wrong in that," remarked the cause of his sudden descent, "you are welcome —"

"But you threw me out!"

"— on the outside of the house, where the mat lies, sir!" concluded the man of the house, closing the window.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness, dizziness, headache. Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All wear one out. Often effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

If it's the kidneys, cure the cause. Dean's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

Read about your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony. The kind that can be investigated. Mrs. John E. Burns, Maysville, Ky., says: "The statement I gave before when I publicly recommended Dean's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I know that this remedy is just as represented as it has been used by one of my relatives with satisfactory results. Dean's Kidney Pills were procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Dean's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Dean's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Burns recommends—the remedy backed by some testimony. 50c all stores. WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, December 19.—The important issues of prohibition and woman suffrage are to be brought to a head in the national House of Representatives the first of the week. The Hobson resolution providing for nationwide prohibition is to be brought to a vote Tuesday and as soon as it is disposed of the suffrage resolution will be taken up for action.

Owing to the press of business the holiday recess of Congress will be exceedingly brief. Both houses are expected to continue at work almost until Christmas day and after a recess of three or four days will resume work the first of the week.

President Wilson has made no special plans for the Christmas holiday. According to present arrangements he will remain at the White House, where he will have as guests his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre. It is probable that several other relatives will join the family party before the end of the week.

Reports from all section of the country indicate that the Christmas trade has been equal in volume to that of former years, and that everywhere the customary preparations are being made for the observance of the holiday. The idea of municipal Christmas trees will be carried out in cities and towns throughout the country. Last year 150 cities had public Christmas trees and this year it is expected there will be a big increase in the number.

The holidays will be marked as usual by numerous conventions of educational and learned bodies. Among the foremost of these will be the annual convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which will be held at the University of Pennsylvania. Another will be the national convention of the Cosmopolitan Club, which will be held at Ohio State University, and will be attended by representatives from many parts of the world.

The week will witness the return of all branches of the French government to Paris, from which city they were transferred temporarily to Bordeaux when the capital was threatened by the invading armies of the Germans. The President and members of his cabinet have already returned to Paris and on Tuesday the Senators and Deputies will assemble there. On that day the Parliament will meet in extraordinary session to consider and act upon emergency measures necessitated by the war.

WHY SMILE?

The greatest single purchase of apples ever known was made by Steinhardt & Kelly of New York this fall when they bought of the Northwestern Organized Fruit Growers 650 carloads for $1,000,000. The crop in the northwestern apple region this year amounted to 13,650 cars. A Spokane correspondent of the Philadelphia Public Ledger states that the area now set out to apples in those states is 505,000 acres. These trees, counting that half of them only will be so cared for that they will succeed, will produce not less than 125,000 carloads in 1919, as about ten times the 1914 crop. "And apple men," he continues, "merely smile at the suggestion that the market will be flooded, even then."

Why smile? An Irishman, the old story tell us, once laughed and chuckled to himself at the trick he was about to play on an unsuspecting bull. He would scare the animal over a steep bank into a mill pond by leaping from behind the hedge, and saying "Boo!" After he had crawled from the pond where the bull tossed him, he is said to have remarked: "Faith, it's well I had me laugh first!"

It is just possible that now is the time for the apple men to smile.

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS.

If you sometimes get discouraged and think things are not breaking very well for you, sit down quietly and "count your many blessings," not forgetting life, health, family, home, friendship, national blessings of peace and prosperity "ad infinitum." Then if you are a normal man or woman your blues will be transformed into a penon of praise.
